Fixation of Minimum Wage for Labourers

359. SHRI JAGDISH PRASAD MATHUR : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) the principles laid down by the Supreme Court in its judgement in 1991 regarding fixation of minimum wage for labour ;

(b) whether orders have been issued for their implementation to benefit lakhs of workers in Delhi ; and

(c) if not, the reasons for the delay in effective compliance of the court directive?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA) : (a) The Supreme Court in its judgement delivered on 31st October, 1991 in Civil Appeal No. 4336 (NL) of 1991 in the case of the workmen versus the Management of Reptakos Brett & Co. Ltd. have held that an additional component for children's education, medical requirements, minimum recreation including Festivals/Ceremonies and provision for old age, Marriage etc. should further Constitute 25 percent of the total minimum wage.

(b) The directive of the Supreme Court have already been brought to the notice of all State Government/Unon Territory Administrations including the National Capital Territory of Delhi by this Minsitry on 19th June, 1992. They have also been requested to take note of the direction while fixing the minimum rates of wages for various scheduled employments under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948.

(c) Question does not arise.

Strike by Bombay Dock Workers

360. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Bombay Dock workers went on strike recently for fulfilment of their demands;

(b) if so, what were their main demands;

(c) whether Government have accepted their demands; and

(d) if not, the reasons thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) and (b) According to available information Bombay Dock workers resorted to wild-cat strike w.e.f. 28-10-93. The strike continued up to 1.30 PM on 30-10-93. The workers were demanding enhancement of the eligibility ceiling on payment of productivity linked bonus/performance reward.

(c) and (d) Since no industrial dispute was raised nor any strike notice served before or after commencement of the strike and the workers themselves called off the strike, there was no scope for conciliation/negotiation in respect of the workers' demand.
